With a formal background in customer service paired with my proven success in Field Technical service ,sales and marketing Leader ,I am looking to related new challenges of service and operations as I did through best service provision to customers and direct liaise with asset management and people.I would bring my tenacity for success to your organization in the capacity of the position -Sales and Marketing Manager.

As such, here are the skills I will bring to your company:

- The Monitoring spirit,adaptability and knowledge that will bridge essential work relationships to achieve organization success.
- A strong commitment to the organization, having contributed talent in the sales operations category in a variety of roles and capacities.
- Tracking,recording/documenting and reporting overall progress -Managing daily operations with subordinates and implementations of new programs.
- Forward - thinking of initiatives in new strategies ,service offering and to go beyond the state of the organization to deliver requirements and archive growth to the community.

With a solid educational foundation,I am confident the skills I honed in my previous positions and experience working in different regions have prepared me for this opportunity with your organization.

My expertise in dealing directly with the community and working experience in sales,marketing,customer/social service management,resseling,inventory control and multi-tasking under pressure make me a great candidate again for this opening. I would love to meet you and share more about my experience .

You may reach me out either by giving me a phone call at 0719566333/0768021841 or email me at adryventure241@gmail.com.
