

leahmollel@gmail.com

0716826456

14110, Dar es salaam

Tanzania

Skills

- Microsoft office
- Risk assessment
- Geotechnical analysis
- Basic computer application
- Safety management
- Team collaboration

Education background

Diploma in mining engineering at Dar es salaam institute of technology from 2019 to 2022

Ordinary level studies at suye secondary school from 2013 to 2016

Referees

Clyton Ngambi.

Mine manager.

Zakayo Daudi mine.

P O.Box 31.

Mobile: +255 765 9889 668

LEAH MOLLEL

Summary

Mining engineering graduate, self-motivated, team working, with excellent research, technical and problem-solving skills. Detail-oriented and able to learn new concepts quickly.

Dedicated and adaptable with a proactive attitude. Strong work ethic and effective communication skills. Eager to contribute to the dynamic team and support organizational goals.

Experience

Shanta gold mine – IPT student

Mbeya, Tanzania

08/2021 – 10/2021

-Safety training. Fire fighting and first aider in case of emergency

-Exploration with diamond drilling and core taking

-Preparing sample for lab assay

-Underground and surface survey during face pick-ups, ore marking, TSF pickup, solo positioning for production, and cavity monitoring using CMS.

-Drilling and blasting for both surface and underground. I performed quality assurance and control for production holes

-Ore spotting and dispatcher

-Serving in service crew during ventilation duct extension and pipe extension for dewatering

-Geotechnical technician during backfills material preparation

Mirerani mines – IPT student

manyara, Tanzania

08/2020 – 10/2020

-conducting regular inspections of site and equipment to identify potential safety hazards and control them

-helped achieve team goals by rotating production lines and daily duties to meet demand